EXT. FOREST - DAY

1

Camera comes up on a BILL doing what looks like Tai Chi in the forest. In a pony, bandanna and shorts. You can hear him speaking or shouting as he does it. Camera comes up on him unnoticed until he turns spots the camera and stops. (Run to camera prat fall and book fly up would be good if can do it)

BILL

Hi, can I help you. Oh you are the camera crew, sorry I thought it was later, but I guess you are here now so we should do this. You might have wondered what I was doing. It's my own invention to exercise and stay fit. I call it Slam Chi. It's like a version of Tai Chi, but as you perform you read out slam or spoken word poetry. By the way here is an excellent book if you would like to see some of the poetry I use, fantastic read, t least I think it is great, available at Amazon, just look it up. So I'm going to get dressed and have a shower, in the mean time you guys can watch this, be right back (points two fingers at camera).

INT. ROOM - DAY

2

Bill at desk, wearing white large Leafs shirt. White/black board (or flip chart) in background with writing formula on it, "Waves vs S.S. Minnow". Cards and books on desk, two full drinks, a beer and glass of wine. clock that forever shows time as 3:33.

BILL

Hi welcome back, hope you enjoyed that. So the reason I invited the film crew here today was to film my thank you video, so, Thank you. Just wanted to let you know I was floored by all the birthday wished from all of you and the efforts you went to, I was so grateful for all the phone messages, emails, cards and especially the video clips you sent, and just wanted to say a big thanks to all and let you know how much I appreciated it. (pause, beat) couple of things I should say. First - YouTube, yes it's Justin Bieber music on one of the clips, but we don't claim copyright to it, we are just using it for educational purposes so please don't shut this video down. Secondly I'd like to do a bit of numerology here.

Bill gets up erases or flips comments on the minnow formula, about how I almost got it worked out but it requires voting of one of the sailors, and does a numerology explanation of 1959 10 24 and finishes with HABS SUCK.

There was one other thing that maybe one of you can shed some light on. Just a sec.

Bill gets up, moves off camera, cut, show returning to sit down. wearing Sam's leaf shirt. Elevator music plays through the pause. Glasses now half full on desk.

Sorry just had to do a window check to make sure they were all closed and locked. So the morning of my birthday I opened the front door because the door bell rang.

BILL (cont'd)

No one was there so I thought probably a package delivery so I looked down and saw this. (show bone present). Weird right.

MARK(O.C)

I did not do that.

BILL

Oh, hi Mark

Not sure what it was so I checked the security camera footage from the night before, and this is what I saw.

Insert video surveillance footage.

So as you can see in the video somebody left this (the bone), there was also a note and a cassette tape. Let me play the tape for you.

Insert and play the cassette tape.

Here is the note, it says the same thing but it has this drawing on it.

Bill shows note. Child's horrific crayon drawing in bottom right of letter.

So if any of you have any idea what this is all about please let me know. So I wear it like a necklace, but its kind of awkward in elevators, escalators, really anywhere where there are crowds, you know stuff like that, and sleeping forget it, even Wendy doesn't like getting woken up in the middle of the night with this big bone thing in her back.

WENDY(O.C.)

Hey, what the Hell?

BILL

Anyway, thanks for watching, hope you enjoyed this little video, again thanks everyone, peace and love (hands in prayer position).
